6th edition of Diversity Day
An ever-increasing commitment to diversity and inclusion in Luxembourg!

Nearly one hundred Luxembourg organizations celebrated diversity and inclusion during the 6th edition of Diversity Day which was held throughout the Grand Duchy on October 6, 2020. An international event, this diversity day invites actors from all horizons to launch initiatives to illustrate their commitment to diversity through specific and fun actions.

7 organizations selected to receive the visit of the Minister of Family and Integration

Mrs. Corinne Cahen, Minister of Family and Integration and Patron of the Diversity Charter Lëtzebuerg was once again on the ground to visit organizations in action and to attend, among other things, a round table on multiculturalism and the launch of awareness campaigns. The Minister also virtually attended 3 events. The current pandemic has not stopped organizations from mobilizing. All of them have adapted their events to continue celebrating diversity within their structure - safely!

26 new signatories commit to diversity

Every year, since the creation of the Lëtzebuerg Diversity Charter in 2012, a signing session brings together new organizations wishing to commit to diversity.

The 10th session of the Official Signature of the Diversity Charter, on the same day, formalized the 26 new members who, despite the current pandemic, have chosen to commit themselves. A symbolic gesture and an important step for the Diversity Charter Lëtzebuerg, which now has more than 200 signatories.

Welcome to: Aberdeen Standard Investments Luxembourg, Advanzia Bank, Association des Banques et Banquiers, Luxembourg (ABBL), Association for Luxembourg Fund Industry (ALFI), ArcelorMittal Luxembourg, Bunker Palace, CFL - Société nationale des chemins de fer luxembourgeois, CHAMP Cargosystems, Clearstream, Confédération Luxembourgeoise du Commerce (CLC), Dupont de Nemours, Ergo Life, Felten & Associés, Fiducial Office Solutions, Groupement Montessori Luxembourg, HITEC Luxembourg, Keter Luxembourg, LuxCSD, Nordea Investment Funds, NTT Nippon Telegraph and Telecom, Payconiq International, SES, Silver Holdings, Spuerkeess, Talkwalker and Voyages Emile Weber.

The virtual signing session, which brought together more than 100 participants, closed with a speech by Dr. Emilia Roig, Founder and Director of the Center for Intersectional Justice in Berlin on the benefits of intersectionality in the workplace.
